WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT'R. 13, 1865.

After the 7th instant, the headquarters of his Excellency, Gov. Perry, will be in Columbia. All communications must be addressed to him there.

The Cholera Is reported to have reached Marseilles. Great alarm is felt in France and England, at the approach of this awful malady. Meetings of medical and scientific men are held to consider sani-

The South Carolina Railroad

Is now completed within fifteen miles of Columbia. The Congarce is passed! Three cargoes of railroad iron recently arrived for that road, and President Magrath hopes that by the 1st of Oct Charleston and Columbia will be uni ted. This is highly gratifying intelligence.

POMARIA. -- Many complaints come to us from this point that the Herald is not received. We regret it, but it is not our fault, the paper is regularly printed and mailed. The package is generally sent by the train, but frequently is taken out by individual subscribers, and they no doubt fail to deliver. Look out for the delinquent, and do not blame us.

Death of Maj. Wm. Laval. We regret to learn the death of this distinguished citizen of our State. He expired on Tuesday last at Greenville, in the 78th year of his age. For meritorious conduct in the war of 1812 he was honored with the rank of Brevet Major, and during the siege of Pensacola, received a wound which resulted in the permanent loss of the use of a limb. In 1823 he resigned his commission in the Army, and was elected Secretary of State. Since that time he has filled the offices of Treasurer and Comptroller-General almost continuously. During the intervals he held positions in the Custor, Honse and in the Sub-Treasury Department.

The Delegations

As far as heard from are composed of excellent men and give general satisfaction. It is believed that wisdom, and prudence will govern their deliberations. Appended is the list: In Spartanburg, Dr. J. J. Winsmith, Capt.

John Carlyle, Rev. M. Barnett, Hon. Jas. Farrow and Col. R. C. Pool. In Fairfield, Messrs Rion, Bratton and Robertson have been elected. In Chester, C. D. Melton, Jas. Hemphill, and pleased to hear of one or two of our old time

In Columbia, Wade Hampton F. W. McMaster A. R. Taylor and Col. Wm. Wallace.

In Abbeville, Hon. D. L. Wardlaw, Gen. S. Mc Gowan, Col. Thos. Thompson, Dr. J. W. Hearst, In Greenville, W. H. Perry, J. P. Boyce, T. C.

Bolling, and J. P. Latimer. In Anderson, Jas. L. Orr, John Wilson, Dr. A. Evins, and W. S. Pickens.

In Laurenz, C. P. Sullivan, Wm. Mills, Rev. A. W. Moore and Col. B. W. Ball.

In Charleston, Chas. McBeth, H. D. Lesesne, W. A. Gilliland, P. C. Gaillard, Jas. Connor, J. first question asked in the morning at the mess A. Wagner, H. Gourdin, C. H. Simonton, F. Melchers, W. S. negro servants come and go when they please and the proper remedy, which is a very simple one, seems never to occur to their employers. If you will inquire of negroes seeking employ-ment whom they lived with last, and why they left, you can thereby, in nearly every case, get information enough to form a correct opinion as to their characters. Let our people determine to not hire negroes who cannot produce a certificate of good behavior from the persons in whose employthey have been. This will put a stop to roving, and hush all complaints .- Augusta Transcript.

As it is in Augusta, and in all other cities, so it is here, the complaint is universal and the only remedy to prevent this running about, which must in the end entail endless misery upon the negro, as it now brings annoyance and difficulty to the white employer, is that no one employ them unless they can bring satisfactory evidence as to their character, end showing reason for leaving their former homes. Something of this kind should be done if only for hu-

Further than this we know nothing, but that an inquest was held and much evidence elicited, which evidence, however, is with-held from us, as not being fully complete in showing that the Colonel of these negro troops was fully cognizant of and ordered the killing of deceased. That it could possibly be otherwise admits of considerable doubt, and as such calls loudly for examination and satisfaction. We understand that the facts will be submitted to the Sceretary of war. The deceased is said to have been a most estimable young man, brave and generous, as was clearly shown in giving himself up when he might have escaped.

During the morning of Friday our citizens had the body taken from the hole where it was only partially covered, and placed in a neat coffin, preparatory to final interment, which was done in the afternoon, a very large, respectable, and sympathizing procession of ladies and gentlemen following it to its final resting place in the grave piaces, and a good kitchen under the same rook The house stands upon twelve acres of ground in the finest cultivation, six acres of which is like a garden spot. On this lot besides the dwelling will be sold separately or together. The whole of this property lies within ainety yards of the Railroad. The dwelling will admirable suit for a Hotel, or for a private residence. The above property will be sold log, and such an inducement is seldom offered to the public, but as I am determined to sell it will be well for parties disposed to purchase to apply early. Application for particulars may be made to Gen. H. H. Kinard and to Editors of the Newberry Herald. JOHN BIRGE.
